16. Any other comments:

The individual comments made by parents were very positive. They mainly commented on the friendliness of a supportive school with good teaching and good resources. Other comments made by parents include how helpful specific evening events were i.e. phonics evening etc. We will try to improve communication by having more information. This will include details of our new website which will be introduced in the near future.

17. I would recommend this school to another parent

74 – Yes = 100%

0 – No

I'm sure you agree this is a tremendous response. It is important that we continue to move the school further forward. Please feel free to discuss any areas that you feel can be further improved. Thank you for your time in completing this questionnaire.
